RIJEČ DIREKTORICE / A WORD FROM THE DIRECTOR

*...UOSTALOM, NAKON

DOISTA OČEKUJU
ČUDESA...*

Kao uvod u 17. Festival tolerancije – JFF Zagreb odabrala sam rečenicu velikog Ranka Marinkovića, jer doista je tako. Ništa nam ne preostaje nego vjerovati u čuda!

Cijeli tim Festivala tolerancije zdušno je radio cijelu proteklu godinu pripremajući njegovo 17. izdanje, koje vam predstavljamo u siječnju 2024.

Potaknuti našim temeljnim vrijednostima uvidamo sve prisutniju potrebu za čovjekoljubljem i humanošću. Ovim Festivalom šaljemo poruku „Otvori se!“, otvori se prema sebi, svom bližnjem i prema drugom i drugaćijem. U navali lažnih vijesti, ratova, klimatskih nepogoda čovjek čovjeku mora biti prijatelj i suputnik. Upravo zato je okosnica cijelog filmskog programa složena kroz program koji broji 40 vrhunskih naslova, od kojih su mnogi nagrađenima na uglednim svjetskim festivalima i

*...IN THE FACE OF

As an introduction to the 17th Festival of Tolerance - JFF Zagreb, I have selected a poignant quote by the esteemed Ranko Marinković, as it holds true to our current reality. We have nothing left but to believe in miracles!

Over the past year, the entire team behind the Festival of Tolerance has dedicated their hearts and souls to preparing its 17th edition, which we are delighted to present to you in January 2024.

Driven by our core values, we acknowledge the ever-present need for philanthropy and compassion. Through this Festival, we aim to convey the resounding message of “Open up!”: open up to yourself, to your neighbour, to the other and to the different. In a world overwhelmed by fake news, wars, climate disasters, it is imperative for humans to become friends and companions u konkurenciji za najprestižnije filmske nagrade. Posebno sam zahvalna mom, našem, selektorskom dvojcu Snejžani Tribuson i Bošku Piculi koji su odabrali program za pamćenje, a kojem je svojim izoštrenim ženskim filmskim čulom doprinijela filmska savjetnica Dina Pokrajac. Na njihovoj predanosti, i prije svega srčanosti, neizmjerno sam zahvalna.

Neću isticati filmske favorite, jer svaki od filmova na programu u ukupno 2.885 minuta filmske trake je zapravo favorit. Svaki će vas film dotaknuti, svaki će vam film ostaviti prostor za promišljanje, raspravu i doprinijeti razumijevanju trenutka u povijesti kojega nismo samo pasivni promatrači, nego aktivni začetnici promjena. Program objedinjuje sve žanrove u zajedničkoj vrijednosti, a to je ljudsko dostojanstvo. Odabrani su za sve generacije, neka svatko pronađe najbolje za sebe!

Mi festivalski ljudi, željno očekujemo ovogodišnju publiku u kinima i čekat ćemo svaku vašu reakciju, svaki uzdah i svaku suzu ili smijeh, upravo to će nama biti poput Oscara, nagrada za sav trud.

Osim filmskog programa i ove godine otvaramo nove/stare teme za rasprave o društvu kroz približavanje teme upravo pomoći najveće, najblijsike većini nas, sedme umjetnosti. Govornici na Tolerance Talk raspravama su vodeći stručnjaci u područjima o kojima će govoriti, a moderatori, svi od reda profesionalci, izvući će najvažnije, najzanimljivije i najpotrebnije što bismo svi morali znati. Jer teme su inspirirane filmovima, a filmovi su inspirirani ljudima.

to one another. Consequently, the foundation of our entire film lineup rests upon a selection of 40 exceptional titles, many of which have garnered accolades from renowned international festivals and have contended for prestigious film awards. I extend my deepest gratitude to our selection duo, Snejžana Tribuson and Boško Picula, who have curated a program to remember. Additionally, I would like to express my appreciation for the invaluable contribution of our film consultant Dina Pokrajac, whose sharp cinematic sensibility has greatly enriched the selection. Their unwavering dedication, and, above all, their courage, are truly commendable.

I will not highlight any film favourites, because each of the films on the program in a total of 2,885 minutes of filmstrip is actually a favourite. Each film will touch you, each film will leave you space for reflection, discussion and contribute to the understanding of a moment in history in which we are not just passive observers, but active initiators of change. The program unites all genres in a common value, which is human dignity. They have been selected for all generations, so everyone should find the best for themselves!

Festival-goers, we eagerly anticipate the presence of you, the audience, in the cinema and we will wait for your every reaction, every sigh and every tear or laugh will be like an Oscar for us, a reward for all the effort.

Neki od njih naši su suradnici od prvih dana postojanja ovog festivala i na tome im zahvaljujem. To je ujedno i razlog što nas ove godine uz plesnu selekciju u tjedan filma uvodi phillipe, Filip Eterović, nasmijani i raspliesani glazbeni suputnik Festivala tolerancije.

Nikako ne propustite izložbu fotoportreta uhvaćenih u objektiv nesvakidašnjih Mare Milin, Stanka Hercega i Sanjina Kaštelana. Svojim umijećem utjelovili su ljetotu i snagu naših vjernih prijatelja i dugogodišnjih partnera, članova Hrvatskog saveza udruga mladih i studenata s invaliditetom „SUMSI“.

I na kraju zahvaljujem našoj vjernoj publici, kroz sedamnaest godina nas je nekada bilo 2.000, nekada 10.000, pa i više, ali baš svatko od vas, od tih tisuća, jedna je mala kockica koja je gradila Festival i koja nas je inspirirala.

Velika zahvala ide iznimnim volonterima, kao i mojim divnim kolegicama iz ureda te vanjskim suradnicima. Posebno želimo zahvaliti našim partnerima, UNHCR-u Hrvatska, Gradu Zagrebu i Hrvatskom audiovizualnom centru. Zahvaljujemo medijskim partnerima, 24 sata, Hrvatskoj radioteleviziji i svima koji su nam ukazivali povjerenje i podržavali naše programe kroz godine. Nadalje, sa zadovoljstvom najavljujemo našu ponovnu suradnju s Ministarstvom unutarnjih poslova, usmjerenu na sprječavanje nasilja i poticanje programa koji zagovaraju ljudska prava i jednakost.

Iako je ovo završni Festival tolerancije u Zagrebu, već se pripremamo za novo izdanje u Zadru ovog rujna. Sa svježim mjestom,

In addition to the film program, this year we are also opening new/old topics for discussions concerning society utilizing the profound medium of the seventh art, which resonates deeply with the hearts of many. Speakers at Tolerance Talk sessions are leading experts in the fields they will talk about. Our moderators, well-versed in the subjects they preside over, will bring out the most significant, enthralling and indispensable knowledge that we all ought to possess. This is because the topics are inspired by the films while the films are inspired by people.

Some of them have been our collaborators since the first days of this festival's existence, and for their support I extend my heartfelt gratitude. This is also the reason that this year, along with the dance selection, Phillippe, Filip Eterović, the jovial and spirited musical companion of the Festival of Tolerance, ushers us into a week-long celebration of cinema.

And Finally, make sure you do not miss the exhibition of photo portraits captured through the lens of the extraordinary Mara Milin, Stanko Herceg and Sanjin Kaštelan. Through their artistry, they have encapsulated the beauty and resilience of our loyal friends and long-term partners, members of the Croatian Association of Associations for Youth and Students with Disabilities known as “SUMSI”.

Lastly, I would like to thank our faithful audience. Over the course of seventeen years, we have been graced by the presence of thousands, ranging from a modest gathering of 2,000 to a staggering assembly of 10, 000 and beyond.

novim gradom i cijelim novim nizom pojedinaca, očekujemo val inspiracije i podrške. Doviđenja Zagrebu i vidimo se opet. Želimo vam ugodan dan i veselimo se suncu i osmjesima koji nas očekuju u Zadru.

Neka ovaj tjedan bude ispunjen mirom i obiljem empatije, ako ne u svijetu, onda barem u Muzeju suvremene umjetnosti i DokuKino KIC, našim dragim domaćinima sljedećih šest dana.

Each and every one of you, a single brick in the foundation of this festival, has been a wellspring of inspiration that continues to fuel our passion.

Many thanks go to the exceptional volunteers, as well as my wonderful office colleagues and outsourced collaborators. In particular, we would like to thank our partners, UNHCR Croatia, the City of Zagreb and the Croatian Audiovisual Centre. We are also grateful to 24 sata, Croatian Radio and Television and all those who have placed their trust in us and supported our programs throughout the years. Furthermore, we are delighted to announce that we will collaborate again with the Ministry of Internal Affairs in activities that promote human rights and equality.

See you again, Zagreb and thank you for your kindness. We are already preparing for a new edition in Zadar this September. With a fresh venue, a new city, and a whole new array of individuals, we anticipate a surge of inspiration and support. Farewell, Zagreb, and thank you for your kindness. We wish you a splendid day and we look forward to the sunshine and smiles that await us in Zadar.

May this week be filled with tranquillity and abundant empathy, if not within the world, then at least within the Museum of Contemporary Art and DokuKino KIC cinema, our cherished hosts for the upcoming six days.

Godina je 1994., frizerka koja je osuđeni lopov Inez de la Paz puštena je s otoka Rikers i vraća se u Harlem, gdje vidi svog sina Terryja s drugom djecom iz njegova udomiteljskog doma. Kad je Terry hospitaliziran nakon pokušaja bijega iz kuće, Inez ga posjećuje. Isprica joj svoje najranije sjećanje kako ga je Inez ostavila na ugлу ulice kad je imao dvije godine. Vidno potresena, Inez pita li Terry doći živjeti s njom. Kad on pristane, Inez ga otme iz bolnice.

Inez i Terry ostaju u različitim domovima dok ona ne prikupi dovoljno novca radeći na novom poslu u staračkom domu kako bi si mogla priuštiti stan. Kako bi Terryja mogla upisati u školu, Inez mu sređuje lažni rodni list i iskaznicu socijalnog osiguranja. Ponovno se susreće sa starim dečkom i kolegom lopovom po imenu Lucky. Iako mu je naizgled nelagodno zbog situacije, on i Inez se vjenčaju te on obećava brinuti se za Terryja.

In 1994, hairdresser and convicted thief Inez de la Paz is released from Rikers Island and returns to the Brooklyn neighborhood of her former shelter, where she sees her son, Terry, with other children from his foster home out on the street. When Terry is hospitalized after trying to escape from the home, Inez secretly visits him. He tells her about his earliest memory: of Inez abandoning him on a street corner when he was two years old.

Inez notifies Terry that they will lose contact again when he is placed at a new foster home. Visibly shaken after he accuses her of repeated abandonment, Inez asks if Terry wants to come live with her. When he says yes, Inez impulsively abducts him from the hospital, escaping to her childhood neighborhood of Harlem.

JNUTAR KABULA / INSIDE KABUL

U ljetu 2021. talibani se vraćaju na vlast u Afganistanu i sudbine dviju mladih žena, Rahe i Marwe, se okreću. Unutar Kabula temelji se na stotinama glasovnih bilješki koje su izmjerenjivale s novinarkom Caroline Gillet tijekom narednih mjeseci. Raha je odlučila ostati u Kabulu; suočava se s nasiljem režima i krizom u koju zemlja postupno tone. Marwa je otisla i zatekne se zatvorena u izbjegličkom kampu u Abu Dhabiju, gdje tjednima iščekuje hoće li biti prihvaćena negdje u Europi ili u SAD-u. Za njih, pitanja, koja se nameću svim mladim ženama njihove dobi, postavljaju se jedinstvenom oštrinom: kako odrasti i planirati budućnost kad imаш 20 godina, a svijet kakav smo poznavali se ruši?

In the summer of 2021, the Taliban return to power in Afghanistan and the destinies of two young women, Raha and Marwa, tilt. Inside Kabul is based on the hundreds of voice notes they exchanged with journalist Caroline Gillet in the months that followed. Raha has chosen to stay in Kabul; she is confronted with the violence of the regime and the crisis into which the country is gradually sinking. Marwa has left and finds herself locked up in a refugee camp in Abu Dhabi, where she waits week after week to be welcomed somewhere in Europe or the United States. For them, the questions that are those of all young women of their age, are asked with a singular sharpness: how to grow up and project oneself towards the future when you are 20 years old and the world one has known is collapsing?

PREUZIMANJE / THE TAKEOVER

Sniman 2021. i 2022. dok talibani ponovno preuzimaju kontrolu nad Afganistanom, ovaj film dokumentira brzu transformaciju zemlje i žena koje odbijaju izgubiti svoja prava.

Počevši od američkog napuštanja Afganistana, Preuzimanje se snima tijekom prve godine kada su talibani ponovno zavladali državom. Prateći žene dok se država mijenja kako bi se uklopila u talibanskiju ideologiju, film prolazi kroz žensko iskustvo, prosvjede i svakodnevni život u gradovima i na selu te vidimo kako se provode ograničenja osnovnih sloboda žena. Redatelj Anders Hammer se vraća u svoj bivši dom u Afganistanu, državi u kojoj je proveo velik dio posljednjih 15 godina radeći i dokumentirajući je, kako bi dao glas iskustvima žena u novom Afganistanu.

Filmed in 2021 and 2022, as the Taliban retake control of Afghanistan, this film documents the country's rapid transformation and the women who refuse to lose their rights.

Starting as the US left Afghanistan, The Takeover is filmed over the first year the Taliban again ruled the country. Following women as the country changes to fit the Taliban's ideology, the film moves through the women's experience, protests and daily life in the cities and countryside, and we see how restrictions on women's basic freedoms are enforced. Director Anders Hammer returns to his former home of Afghanistan, a country he has spent a large part of the last 15 years working in and documenting, to give voice to women's experience in a new Afghanistan.

LUKSEMBURG, LUKSEMBURG

Mnogo je lijepih mjesta za umiranje. Luksemburg nije jedno od njih. Bio on lijep ili ne, vrlo je skupo umrijeti u Luksemburgu.

Kad braća blizanci čuju da je njihov dugo odsutni otac bolestan u Luksemburgu, kreću na put kako bi ga posljednji put vidjeli. Hoće li čovjek kojeg će pronaći biti opaki otac kakvog pamte?

There are many beautiful places to die. Luxembourg is not one of them. But beautiful or not, Luxembourg makes dying very expensive.

When twin brothers hear that their long-absent father is sick in Luxembourg, they set out on a journey to see him one last time. Will the man they find be the bad-ass father they remember?

Tijekom jedne godine pratimo svakodnevnicu mališana Baldera i Haakona (2) u vrtiću u Norveškoj. Film nam omogućuje da vidiemo kako se djeca međusobno druže i komuniciraju. Naglasak je na prijateljstvu i vezama između njih, kao i njihovim sukobima, ali nam govori i nešto o nama samima kao ljudskim bićima. Kako djeca rastu i razvijaju se, odražavaju ono što svi nosimo u svojim srcima.

Throughout a year, we follow the everyday life of toddlers Balder and Haakon (2) in a kindergarten in Norway. The film allows us to see how children socialize and interact with each other. The focus is on the friendship and bonds between them, as well as their conflicts, but it also tells us something about ourselves as human beings. As the children grow and unfold, they reflect what we all carry in our hearts.

DVADESET DANA U MARIUPOLJU / 20 DAYS IN MARIUPOL

AP-ova skupina ukrajinskih novinara, zatočenih u opkoljenom Mariupolu, bori se kako bi nastavila svoj rad na dokumentiranju strahota ruske invazije. Kao jedini međunarodni izvjestitelji koji su ostali u gradu, snimili su ono što su kasnije postale ključne slike rata: djeca koja umiru, masovne grobnice, bombardiranje rođilišta i još mnogo toga. Nakon gotovo desetjeća izvještavanja za Associated Press o međunarodnim sukobima, uključujući i rusko-ukrajinski rat, Dvadeset dana u Mariupolu prvi je dokumentarni film Mstyslava Černova. Film se temelji na Černovljevim dnevnim vijestima i osobnim snimkama vlastite zemlje u ratu. Nudi živopisani, potresan prikaz civila zarobljenih u opsadi, kao i uvid u to kako je to izvještavati iz zone sukoba i utjecaj takvog novinarstva širom svijeta.

An AP team of Ukrainian journalists trapped in the besieged city of Mariupol struggle to continue their work documenting atrocities of the Russian invasion. As the only international reporters who remain in the city, they capture what later become defining images of the war: dying children, mass graves, the bombing of a maternity hospital, and more. After nearly a decade covering international conflicts, including the Russia-Ukraine war, for The Associated Press, 20 DAYS IN MARIUPOL is Mstyslav Chernov's first feature film. The film draws on Chernov's daily news dispatches and personal footage of his own country at war. It offers a vivid, harrowing account of civilians caught in the siege, as well as a window into what it's like to report from a conflict zone, and the impact of such journalism around the globe.

Luisa iz Buenos Airesa i Fred iz Brandenburga u svojoj su vezi stvorili vlastiti svemir. Povrh birokratskih olakšica stupanja u brak, odlučuju posebno obilježiti svoju ljubav u malom krugu najbližih. Njihove obitelji, s druge strane, planiraju veliko slavlje. Luisa i Fred shvaćaju da su podcjenili veličinu ove ceremonije i očekivanja obitelji i tradicija koje obično idu uz nju. Oni se sve više suočavaju sa stereotipnim uzorima i međukulturalnim predrasudama. Luisa i Fred gube kontrolu nad događajima, pomiruju se i postaju poput lutaka u lažnim kostimima. Naposljetku, tobože velikodušan vjenčani dar njihovih roditelja - kuća u seoskom susjedstvu - uzrok je prvih pukotina u njihovom odnosu. Fred i Luisa postaju autsajderi na vlastitom vjenčanju te u vrtlogu noći izgube svoj suverenitet i jedinstvo.

Luisa from Buenos Aires and Fred from Brandenburg have created their own universe in their relationship. In addition to the bureaucratic benefits of getting married, they decide to make a special mark on their love in a small, intimate setting. Their families, on the other hand, are planning a big celebration. Luisa and Fred realize that they have underestimated the magnitude of this ceremony and the families' expectations and traditions associated with it. They find themselves increasingly confronted with stereotypical role models and intercultural prejudices. Luisa and Fred lose control of events, resign themselves and become like puppets in false costumes. Finally, their parents' supposedly generous wedding gift - a house in the rural neighborhood - causes the first cracks in their relationship. Fred and Luisa become outsiders at their own wedding and lose their sovereignty and unity in the maelstrom of the night.

Filmski producent se vraća iz Kijeva u svoje udaljeno selo kako bi oženio ljubav svog života. Od nje se očekuje udaja za rabinovog sina, što remeti ravnotežu u cijelom gradu. Sniman u jednom odvažnom kadru, ovaj film prikazuje jedan dan u životu židovskog sela prije nego što ono nestane.

SHTTL je priča o stanovnicima jidiš ukrajinskog sela na granici s Poljskom, 24 sata prije nacističkog napada, poznatog pod nazivom Operacija Barberossa. Takvih sela danas više nema; produkcija je u potpunosti rekonstruirala tradicionalni 'Shtetl' izvan Kijeva. Nakon snimanja, set je trebao biti pretvoren u muzej, ali je u međuvremenu uništen u aktualnoj političkoj krizi između Rusije i Ukrajine.

A filmmaker returns from Kiev to his rural village to marry the love of his life.

She is expected to marry the Rabbi's son, which disrupts the balance of the whole town.

In one unflinching shot, this film presents a day in the life of a Jewish village before it disappears.

SHTTL is the story of the inhabitants of a Yiddish Ukrainian village at the border of Poland, 24 hours before the Nazi invasion, known as Operation Barbarossa. Today, there are no such villages in existence; the production fully reconstructed a traditional 'Shtetl' outside of Kiev. Following the filming, the set was to be turned into a museum, but has since been destroyed in the ongoing political crisis between Russia and Ukraine.

Uz ritmičku fluidnost, Sabino se tijelo kreće u ritmu glazbe. Ples je ono za što ona živi, način na koji se izražava – ali nije slobod-na to činiti u svojoj zemlji. U filmu koji pleše na granici između do-kumentarca i fikcije, pojavljuje se dirljiv portret generacije mlađih Iranaca sputanih krutim pravili-ma Islamske republike. Kada se Saba pobuni u pjesničkom činu prkosa, granice između fikcije i stvarnosti konačno nestaju.

Saba, an Iranian girl, is a dancer. She wants to be indifferent to her surroundings and project this self-being and freedom with her "body". She is in love with the art of dancing, the art of letting go and living away from conventional bonds but the art of being is forbidden in an ultimately religious state who ignores the very basic human rights. The film is an honest portrait of the daily oppression women have to deal with in Iran towards the path to freedom.

Potaknut pulsirajućim ritmova rane hip hop scene u Toronto, Brat je priča o Francisu i Michaelu, sinovima karipskih imigranata koji stasaju u mladiće. Istražujući teme muškosti, identiteta i obitelji, misterij se razotkriva tijekom sparnog ljeta 1991., a rastuće napetosti pokreću niz događaja koji zauvijek mijenjaju tijek života braće. Brat stvara aktualnu priču o dubokoj vezi između braće i sestara, otpornosti zajednice i nezaustavljivo moći glazbe.

Propelled by the pulsing beats of Toronto's early hip hop scene, Brother is the story of Francis and Michael, sons of Caribbean immigrants maturing into young men. Exploring themes of masculinity, identity and family, a mystery unfolds during the sweltering summer of 1991, and escalating tensions set off a series of events that change the course of the brothers' lives forever. Brother crafts a timely story about the profound bond between siblings, the resilience of a community, and the irrepressible power of music.

UČENICI UMBERTA PIRMA / THE STUDENTS OF UMBERTO PRIMO

U Solunu, Grčka, pod nacističkom okupacijom, 96 posto židovskog stanovništva poslano je u Auschwitz. Ovaj film dokumentira prethodno neispričane priče nekolicine od mnogih mlađih židovskih učenika koji pohadaju talijansku školu Umberto Primo, koji moraju svoje nade i snove staviti na čekanje i usredotočiti se samo na to kako će preživjeti. Rekreiramo priče, nade, snove i konačne sudbine devetorice tih židovskih učenika. Rekreirajući njihove priče, pričamo i priču o holokaustu u Grčkoj.

Film se temelji na dosad neotkrivenoj arhivskoj građi koju je jedan talijanski profesor pronašao, kao i svjedočenjima preživjelih protagonisti."

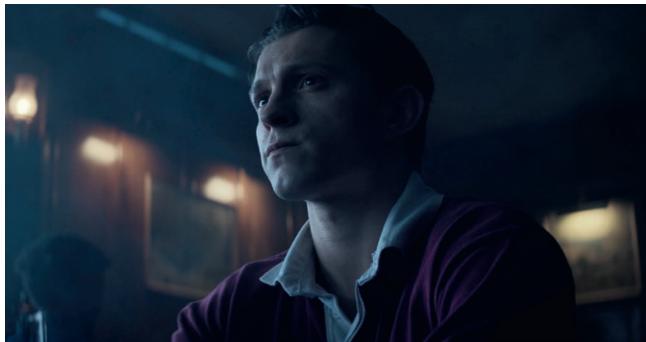

"In Thessaloniki, Greece, under Nazi occupation, 96 percent of the Jewish population was sent to Auschwitz. This film documents the previously untold stories of some of the many young Jewish students attending the Italian school, Umberto Primo, who must put their hopes and dreams on hold and focus only on how they will survive. We recreate the stories, hopes, dreams, and ultimate fates of nine of these Jewish students. By recreating their stories, we also tell the story of the Holocaust in Greece.

The film is based on previously undiscovered archival material found by an Italian professor, and the testimonies of surviving protagonists.

Od Hershela iz Ostopola do Lennyja Brucea, Ephraima Kishona do Mela Brooksa, ako postoji jedna stvar koja ujedinjuje sve Židove, to je njihov blago autoironični, urnebesni smisao za humor, ili barem tako glasi mit. U ovom novom dokumentaru, filmski radnici Jascha Hannover (Drugi Svjetski Rat u Hollywoodu) i Arkadij Kahet (Masel Tov Cocktail) krenuli su u istraživanje podrijetla židovskog humoru, prateći upotrebu ironije i satire sve do Biblije. Sadrži arhivske snimke iz cijelog svijeta i stručnjake za komediju iz Europe i Izraela, Tko Se Boji Židovskog Humora? slavi vrlo dugu tradiciju Židova koji su ozbiljno i ubitacno smiješni.

From Hershel of Ostopol to Lenny Bruce, Ephraim Kishon to Mel Brooks, if there is one thing that unites all Jews, it is their self-deprecating, hilarious sense of humour, or so the myth goes. In this new documentary, filmmakers Jascha Hannover's (Hollywood's Second World War) and Arkadij Kahet's (Masel Tov Cocktail) set out to explore the origins of Jewish humor, tracing the use of irony and satire back to the Bible. Featuring archival footage from around the globe and comedy experts from Europe and Israel, Who's Afraid of Jewish Humour? celebrates a very long tradition of Jews being seriously and agonisingly funny.

Mladi plivač, Omid (čije ime na perzijskom znači "nada"), njegova majka Leili, i ujak Saadi, svaki je svoju sudbinu stavio na jedno važno predstojeće natjecanje u plivanju. Međutim, u danima i satima prije susreta, svakome od njih postaju jasne posljedice neuspjeha - što sve teško pada na Omidova pleća kao odgovornost koju odbija snositi. Dok njihova zajednica ljubomorno i postojano nagriza obiteljsku fasadu, sloj po sloj, kako bi pronašla bilo koju slabost, sama se obitelj također počinje raspadati poput pijeska pod teretom nadiruće plime. Drugi film u planiranoj trilogiji Sadaf Foroughija, Ljeto s nadom, propituje opterećujuća očekivanja nove generacije, kako za njih same tako i za njihove obitelji, dok istražuju primamljive horizonte i novoootkrivene slobode. Smješteno u pozadini tradicionalnog patrijarhalnog društva u kojem se tendencije koje su u suprotnosti s prihvaćenim normama susreću sa žestokim, ali prikrivenim otporom, Ljeto s nadom klasična je tragedija stvarnih razmjera.

Young swimmer, Omid (whose name means "Hope" in Persian), along with his mother, Leili, and uncle, Saadi, have each placed their individual fates on one vital upcoming swimming competition. In the days and hours before the meet, however, the consequences of failure become clear for each - all of which falls heavily on Omid's shoulders as a responsibility he refuses to bear. As their community jealously and steadily erodes the family's façade, layer by layer, to find whatever weakness they can, the family itself also begins to crumble like sand under the weight of the encroaching tide. The second film in Sadaf Foroughi's planned trilogy, SUMMER WITH HOPE examines the pressure-filled expectations of a new generation, for both themselves and their families, as they explore beckoning horizons and newly discovered freedoms. Set against the backdrop of a traditional patriarchal society where tendencies that contradict accepted norms are met with fierce-yet-cloaked resistance, SUMMER WITH HOPE is a classic tragedy of real-world proportions.

PRAZNE MREŽE / EMPTY NETS

Dvadesetogodišnjaci Amir i Narges u svom su rodnom gradu na obali Kaspijskog mora, pronašli nešto što se doima kao istinska ljubav. No u današnjem Iranu to je daleko od dovoljnog za izgradnju zajedničkog života, pa su prisiljeni tajiti vezu. Kako bi pridobio Nargesinu obitelj iz više klase i platio odgovarajući miraz, Amiru treba novac, i to brzo. Leđima naslonjen na zid, Amir pronalazi posao ribara u lokalnoj ribarskoj firmi, gdje se uvlači u opasan, ali unosan posao krijumčarenja kavijara na crnom tržištu. Dok Amirove vrijednosti ugrožava ilegalno podzemlje, Narges odugovlači s vremenom i pokušava odgoditi dogovoren brak koji za nju planiraju njezini roditelji. Mogu li njihova ljubav, nade i snovi preživjeti u čvrsto isprepletenoj mreži tradicije, korupcije i društvene hijerarhije koja nastavlja upravljati životima nove generacije u Iranu?

Twenty somethings Amir and Narges have found what feels like true love in their hometown by the coast of the Caspian sea. But in today's Iran that's far from enough to build a life together, and they are forced to keep the relationship secret. To win over Narges' upper class family and pay an appropriate dowry, Amir needs money, and he needs it fast. With his back against the wall, Amir finds work at a local fishery, where he is drawn into the dangerous but lucrative business of black market caviar smuggling. As Amir's values are compromised by the illegal underworld, Narges stalls for time and tries to delay the arranged marriage her parents are planning for her. Can their love, hopes and dreams survive the tightly knit web of tradition, corruption, and social hierarchy that continues to rule over the lives of a new generation in Iran?

U siječnju 1945., manje od dva tjedna prije evakuacije iz logora smrti Auschwitz-Birkenau, četiri prisiljene radnice, Estusia Wajcblum, Rosa Robota, Alla Gartner i Regina Safirstein, javno su obješene nakon što su optužene za sabotažu nacističkog ratnog stroja.

Sabotaža priča dramatičnu nepoznatu priču o ženskoj podzemnoj operaciji u Auschwitz-Birkenau. To je priča o ženskom junaštvu, otporu i tragediji, ispričana očima Anne Wajcblum Heilman, Estusijine sestre i najmlađe članice ženskog otpora. U užasavajućem paklu Auschwitza, Anna piše dnevnik u kojem opisuje dramatičnu priču o ženskom otporu, druženju i prijateljstvu između tih žena.

January 1945, less than two weeks before the Auschwitz-Birkenau death camp evacuation, four forced laborers women, Estusia Wajcblum, Rosa Robota, Alla Gartner, and Regina Safirstein were hanged in public after being accused of sabotaging the Nazi war machine.

Sabotage tells the dramatic unknown story of the women's underground operation in Auschwitz-Birkenau. It is a story of feminine heroism, resistance, and tragedy, told through the eyes of Anna Wajcblum Heilman, Estusia's sister and the youngest member of the women's resistance. Under the horrific inferno of Auschwitz, Anna writes a diary describing the dramatic story of the women's resistance, the camaraderie, and the friendship between those women.

17. FESTIVAL TOLERANCIJE -JFF ZAGREB

TOLERANCE TALK RASPRAVE / TOLERANCE TALK DISCUSSIONS

Film je snažno sredstvo koje naše strahove, strasti i nelagode može odvojiti od nas samih kako bismo se s njima lakše suočili s njima i o njima progovarali. 17. izdanje Festivala tolerancije ponovno otvara teške, polarizirajuće, ali za demokraciju važne teme u formatu strukturiranih rasprava pod nazivom Tolerance Talk koje su vezane uz filmove koji će se prikazati u festivalskim programskim sekcijama. Ove godine razgovaramo o nekoliko takvih društvenih fenomena – pravima osoba s međunarodnom zaštitom, islamofobiji; slojevitostima i učincima gaming industrije; te antisemitizmu i poricanju genocida.

Film is a powerful tool that can separate our fears, passions, and discomforts from ourselves so that we can more easily face them and talk about them. The 17th edition of the Tolerance Festival reopens difficult, polarizing, but important topics for democracy in the format of structured discussions called Tolerance Talk, which are related to the films that will be shown in the festival's program sections. This year, we are discussing several such social phenomena – the rights of persons with international protection, Islamophobia; layers and effects of the gaming industry; and anti-Semitism and genocide denial.

SRIJEDA (WEDNESDAY)
24. 1. / 17:30 – 21:00

Tijekom proteklih nekoliko desetljeća videoigre su prešle dug put od svog početka, s novim napretkom u tehnologiji i grafici, koji su doveli do sve veće baze obožavatelja te prerasle u industriju masovnog tržišta s godišnjim prihodom od gotovo 200 milijardi dolara. Mnogi znanstvenici, polovnjaci, zdravstveni i obrazovni radnici te javnost raspravljaju o problemima, ali i prednostima koje utječu na igre i njihovu budućnost, od demografskih promjena igrača do streaminga, privatnosti i stvaranja geopolitičkih meka moći.

Tko se sve bavi gamingom? Što su činjenice, a što predrasude o gamingu? Kolika je zarada gaming industrije? Koje su koristi, a što su potencijalni štetni učinci gaminga? Što je gaming disorder? Što o gamingu kažu osobe iz industrije, a što odgojno-obrazovni djelatnici? Ovo su pitanja koja postavljamo u raspravi Tolerance Talk u kojoj sudjeluju različiti profil stručnjaka koji sagledavaju ovaj važan društveni fenomen iz različitih uglova – ekonomskog, medicinskog i terapijskog

Over the past few decades, video games have come a long way since their inception, with new advancements in technology and graphics leading to a growing fan base and growing into a mass market industry with annual revenue of nearly $200 billion. Many scientists, gamers, health and educational professionals and the public discuss the problems and benefits that affect games and their future, from the changing demographics of players to streaming, privacy and the creation of geopolitical soft powers.

Who is all into gaming? What are facts and what are prejudices about gaming? How much does the gaming industry make? What are the benefits and what are the potential harmful effects of gaming? What is gaming disorder? What do people from the industry say about gaming, and what do educators say? These are the questions we ask in the Tolerance Talk discussion, in which different profiles of experts participate who look at this important social phenomenon from different angles - economic, medical and therapeutic.

Broj prisilno raseljenih osoba u svijetu premašio je 110 milijuna. Pa ipak, ljudi koji bježe od ratova, nasilja i proganjanja nastavljaju se suočavati s neprihvativim rizicima i otporima u mnogim dijelovima svijeta dok pokušavaju doći do sigurnosti. Eksternalizacija, rastuća diskriminacija, kriminalizacija i politizacija izbjeglica kao i strože i sve restriktivnije politike prihvata prijete pravu na traženje azila i ostvarivanju temeljnih prava izbjeglica.

Više od polovice svjetskih izbjeglica su djeca. Mnogi će cijelo djetinjstvo provesti daleko od kuće, ponekad odvojeni od obitelji. Neki među njima su preživjeli nasiљje, zlostavljanje, zanemarivanje, iskorištavanje, bili žrtve trgovine ljudima ili vojnog regrutiranja, bilo da je to bio razlog zbog kojega su bili prisiljeni pobjeći ili su tome bili izloženi na putu do sigurnosti.

Što za njih znači biti izbjeglica? Kakvo je njihovo iskustvo izbjeglih osoba u Hrvatskoj? Zašto nam je izazovno prihvatiti drugo i drugačije? I najvažnije – što možemo učiniti kako bismo pružili dobrodošlicu i olakšali uključivanje u lokalnu zajednicu izbjeglicom koje u Hrvatskoj ponovno izgraduju svoje životе? Ovo su o kojima će tijekom Tolerance Talka svoja razmišljanja podijeliti djeca, jedno s iskustvom izbjeglištva, drugo s iskustvom podrške izbjeglicama te predstavnica škole u zagrebačkim Dugavama koja ima najveće iskustvo uključivanja djece izbjeglica u obrazovanje i lokalnu zajednicu. Na početku će se publici obratiti i predstavnik UNHCR-a Hrvatska, Agencije UN-a za izbjeglice.

The global crisis of forced displacement is reaching alarming levels, with the number of forcibly displaced people exceeding 110 million. This staggering figure is a stark reminder of the immense challenges faced by individuals fleeing from war, violence, and persecution in search of safety. Externalization, growing discrimination, criminalization and politicization of refugees are on the rise, posing a direct threat to their right to seek asylum and the realization of their fundamental rights.

More than half of the world's refugees are children. Many will spend their entire childhood away from home, sometimes separated from their families. Many of them have endured unimaginable hardships, including violence, abuse, neglect and exploitation. Some have even fallen victim to human trafficking or coerced military recruitment, either as a result of their forced displacement or during their perilous journey to safety.

What does being a refugee mean to them? What is their experience as refugees in Croatia? Why is it challenging for us to accept others and be different? And most importantly - what can we do to welcome and facilitate integration into the local community for refugees who are rebuilding their lives in Croatia? These are the children who will share their thoughts during the Tolerance Talk, one with the experience of being a refugee, the other with the experience of supporting refugees, and the representative of the school in Dugave, Zagreb, which has the most experience of including refugee children. At the beginning, the audience will be addressed by a representative of UNHCR Croatia, the UN Refugee Agency.

SUBOTA (SATURDAY)

Prema mnogim istraživačima genocida, negiranje genocida njegova je zadnja faza. Kada se radi o holokaustu, negiranje, iskrivljavanje i relativiziranje zločina idu ruku pod ruku s u društvu stalno prisutnim antisemitizmom. Kada se radi o širem društvenom kontekstu, poricanje ima različita lica – možemo poricati postojanje virusa, znanstvene dokaze i medicinska i tehnička postignuća pa čak i oblik naše planete, i pritom se pozivati na kritičko mišljenje i slobodu govora. Negiranje je važna i slojevita tema koja zahtjeva pažljivo istraživanje i argumentiranje, jer u protivnom može, vrlo brzo i vješto, izmaknuti fokus u smjeru kolektivnog gaslighting-a, a nakon toga je svaki ishod moguć. Rasprava koju donosimo nakon filma bit će teška, toliko možemo obećati. U njoj će sudjelovati povjesničari, predstavnici međunarodnih organizacija i novinari koji će, svaki iz svog ugla pristupiti ovoj izmičućoj i nedokučivoj temi.

According to many genocide researchers, the denial of genocide is its final stage. When it comes to the Holocaust, denying, distorting and relativizing the crime go hand in hand with the ever-present anti-Semitism in society. When it comes to the wider social context, denial has many faces – we can deny the existence of viruses, scientific evidence and medical and technological achievements, and even the shape of our planet, while still appealing to critical thinking and freedom of speech. Denial is an important and layered topic that requires careful research and argumentation, because otherwise it can, very quickly and skilfully, shift the focus in the direction of collective gaslighting, and after that any outcome is possible. The discussion we bring after the film will be tough, we can promise that much. Historians, representatives of international organizations and journalists will take part in it, each from their own angle approaching this elusive and elusive topic.

IZLOŽBA FOTOPORTRETH OSOBA S INVALIDITETOM / PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBITION

IZLOŽBA FOTOPORTRETH / PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBITION

TU SMO, 2023.

Mare Milin, Stanko Herceg,
Sanjin Kaštelan

Izložba pop up fotografija rezultat je suradnje Festivala tolerancije i Saveza udruga za mlade i studente s invaliditetom "SUMSI". Cilj ovog projekta je podizanje svijesti o životu osoba s invaliditetom i služi kao podsjetnik na važnost inkluzije, razumijevanja i podrške. Inspirirana izložbom foto-portreta izbjeglica iz 2019. godine, "Oni/They," izložba "Tu smo" donosi foto portrete osoba s invaliditetom kroz umjetničku viziju fotografa Mare Milin, Stanka Hercega i Sanjina Kaštelana. Ove fotografije nisu samo slike; one su priče o hrabrosti, izdržljivosti i dostojanstvu.

Fotografije Mare Milin prikazuju Lovru kroz tri različita plana i upozorava kako često izmičemo stvarnosti osoba s invaliditetom. "Stigma koja prati pojedince s invaliditetom postoji oduvijek. Urođen, stečen, potpun, djelomičan, kakav god bio, invaliditet je predmet čestih uzmicanja, nerazumijevanja, osuda i otuđenja. Rođeni smo da razumijemo, prihvaćamo i suradujemo. Iz tog sam razloga Lovru, koji hrabro živi svoj život s invaliditetom, odlučila fotografirati na način koji razotkriva, korak po korak, u tri plana viđenja – krpni plan, srednji plan i total plan. Krupni i srednji plan nagovješćuju osobu, dok total doživljavamo kao osobu u invalidskim kolicima. Zanimljiva je činjenica da sam se poslužila uzmicanjem, jer to je ono što

WE ARE HERE, 2023

Mare Milin, Stanko Herceg,
Sanjin Kaštelan

The pop-up photography exhibition is the result of collaboration between the Festival of Tolerance and the Croatian Union of Youth and Students with Disabilities (SUMSI). The aim of this project is to raise awareness about the lives of people with disabilities and serves as a reminder of the importance of inclusion, understanding and support. Inspired by the Oni/They exhibition of the photo-portraits of refugees from 2019, the We Are Here exhibition presents portraits of people with special needs through the artistic vision of photographers such as Mare Milin, Stanko Herceg and Sanjin Kaštelan. These photos are not merely pictures; they tell the stories of courage, endurance and dignity.

The photographs of Mare Milin showcase Lovro through three different shots and warns about how often we escape from the reality of people with special needs. There has always been the stigma that is attached to individuals with disabilities. Congenital, acquired, complete, partial, whatever it may be, such disabilities are often the subject of frequent retreats, misunderstandings, judgments and alienation. We are born to understand, accept and collaborate. For this reason, I decided to take photographs of Lovro, who boldly lives his life with disabilities, in a step-by-step way revealed in three different types of shots – the close-up, medium and long shot. The close-up and medium shots mnogi ljudi rade u kontaktu s invalidom. Međutim, zanimljivo je i da sam počela, bez nekog velikog prethodnog upoznavanja, s Lovrinim toplim i dragim licem, snimljenim u krupnom planu, iz velike blizine. Eto, koliko je to sve to relativno. I na kraju se sve svodi na pitanje jesmo li se približavali objektu iz blizine, ili smo uzmaknuli i udaljili se. Kao osoba uvijek bih se približila, ali kao fotograf, u svrhu ovog zadatka, uzmaknula sam kako bih vam pokazala da je Lovro OVDJE.”

Most kao simbol prepreke i metafora za barijere s kojima se osobe s invaliditetom suočavaju je motiv s kojim je radio Stanko Herceg: “Nevenu i Nikolu portretirao sam ne kako stoje na, već upravo ispod njihovih kvar-tovskih mostova, dajući time kritiku društva koje zanemaruje ljude poput njih. Oni su skriveni ispod mosta, ispod pogleda, živeći u nemogućnosti prelazeњa svakodnevnih fizičkih prepreka. Većina ne uočava Nevenu, Nikolu i njima slične ostavljajući ih „ispod mosta“ te tako ih osuđuje, uzimajući ih zdravo za gotovo, na pokušaje vlastitog snalaženja i borbu s preprekama o kojima ostatok društva ni ne razmišlja.”

Sanjin Kaštelan nas vodi kroz intimni proces suradnje s modelima, koji ogoljuje obje strane: “Najveći izazov je portretirati fragilnost, tišinu, zamrznuti njezin trenutak, ne uzimajući pritom ništa od nje. Izazov je svjedočiti neintervenirajući u proces. Trenutak susreta s Patrikovim očima, koje su žive i iza kojih se nalazi sveci snažnog muškarca, nemalo je intiman jer ogoljuje i ujedno čini zahvalnjim za darove života. Nevjerojatno je svjedočiti Patrikovom koračanju evoke a person, while the long shot is experienced as a person in a wheelchair. It is interesting that I used retreat because that is what many people do in contact with a disabled person. However, it is also interesting that, without any prior acquaintance, I started with a close-up photography of Lovro's warm and dear face, taken at close range. That is how relative it all is. And in the end, it all boils down to the question of whether we approached the object at close range or whether we retreated and moved away. As a person, I would always get closer, but as a photographer, for the purpose of this assignment, I retreated in order to show you that Lovro is HERE.

The bridge as a symbol of conquering obstacles and a metaphor for overcoming the barriers that people with disabilities face is a recurrent motif in the work of Stanko Hrećeg: “I have portrayed Nevena and Nikola not standing on their neighbourhood bridges, but precisely under them, thereby criticizing society that neglects people like them. They live their lives hidden under the bridge, out of sight, unable to overcome everyday physical obstacles. The majority do not take note of Nevena, Nikola and others like them, leaving them “under the bridge” and thus condemning them, taking them for granted, trying to find their own way and fighting obstacles that the rest of society does not even take into account.”

Sanjin Kaštelan guides us through an intimate process of collaboration with models, which exposes both sides: “The biggest chal-

po četvrti u kojoj su nastali portreti, jer je ta vještina ovladavanja fizičkim prostorom svakodnevna praksa svakoga od nas, dakle portret normalnosti. Patrik to jest. Normalnost neobilježena nedostatkom, već vještinom kompleksnog doživljaja koju skrivaju plahe i itekako plave oči.”

Festival tolerancije do sada je uspješno producirao i druge društveno angažirane izložbe, među ostalim izložbu foto portreta «Oni/They», 2019. (Stanko Herceg, Mare Milin, Ana Opalić i Ivan Posavec), izložbu dizajnerskih plakata «ReD – Refugees and Design», 2020. (Ana Kunej (Kuna Zlatica), Dejan Dragosavac Ruta, Iva Babaja, Bruketa&Žinić&Grey i studio Šesnić&Turković), 2021., izložbu koja tematizira pitanja izbjeglica u Hrvatskoj, ilustriranu od ilustratora/ica i strip majstora/ica Helene Klakočar, Tisje Kljaković Braić i Milana Trenca uz potporu dr. sc. Vladimira Sviljušca, osmisili su ilustracije sa skivenim porukama (2D hologramima) na temu izbjegličkih sudsibina i puteva njihovih integracija u hrvatsko društvo. “Tu smo” je još jedan korak u pravcu razumijevanja i prihvatanja različitosti.

lence is to portray fragility, silence, to freeze its moment in time, while at the same time not to take anything from it. The challenge is to bear witness without intervening the process. The moment of meeting Patrik's eyes, which are full of life, unfolding the universe of a strong man, is quite intimate because it exposes consequently making you ever so grateful for the gifts of life. It is incredible to witness Patrik walking around the neighborhood where the portraits were created, because this skill of mastering physical space is a daily practice of each of us, hence a portrait of normality. That is to say of Patrik. This normality is not marked by a deficiency, but by the skill of complex experience hiding timid and very blue eyes.”

So far The Festival of Tolerance has successfully produced other socially engaged exhibitions as well, including the exhibition of photo portraits Oni/They, 2019 (Stanko Herceg, Mare Milin, Ana Opalić and Ivan Posavec), the exhibition of designer posters «ReD – Refugees and Design», 2020 (Ana Kunej (Kuna Zlatica), Dejan Dragosavac Ruta, Iva Babaja, Bruketa&Žinić&Grey and Studio Šesnić&Turković), 2021, an exhibition that deals with the issues of refugees in Croatia, painted by the illustrators and comic artists Helena Klakočar, Tisje Kljaković Braić and Milan Trenč with the support of Vladimir Cvilišćac, PhD. They created illustrations with subliminal messages (2D holograms) addressing the topic of refugees' fates and their ways of integration into Croatian society. We are Here is a further step towards understanding and accepting diversity.

17. FESTIVAL TOLERANCIJE - JFF ZAGREB

GLAZBENI PROGRAM / MUSIC PROGRAM

Još je Aristotel glazbi davao važnu odgojnu ulogu, a Francis Bacon u ozračju novog duha renesanse i probudene vjere u čovjekove mogućnosti i sposobnosti, vjerovao je u etičku moć glazbe, u njezinu sposobnost utjecanja na čovjekove emocije i ponašanje.

Upravo je na tragu njihovih misli Festival tolerancije uveo glazbeni program još davne 2008. godine, kako bi se približio različitoj publici i kako bi kroz glazbu prenosio svoju misiju društva prihvaćanja, održavajući tako tradiciju spajanja ljudi putem umjetnosti s posebnim naglaskom na dobru glazbu.

Uz bogati filmski i popratni program, Festival je do sada ugostio vrhunske svjetske i domaće glazbenike, raznih žanrova – od jazza preko tradicionalno romske glazbe, klezmer glazbe, rocka i elektronike, pa sve do poznatih domaćih i stranih DJ-a. Od brazilske DJice Joice Muniz do austrijskog dvojca Ogris Debris te brojnih drugih popularnih DJ-eva upravo nam je Filip Eterović bio dugo godina glavni protagonist rasplesanih večeri i druženja.

I zbog svega toga na ovogodišnjem festivalu u svečano otvorenje i u tјedan vrhunskih filmova kroz istančanu glazbenu selekciju uest će nas naš i vaš DJ phillipe (Filip Eterović).

Just as Aristotle emphasized the importance of music in education, so did Francis Bacon, in the rejuvenating atmosphere of the Renaissance, foster a profound belief in the potential and capabilities of humanity, recognizing the ethical potency of music and its influence on human emotions and behaviour.

Taking a cue from these thinkers, the Festival of Tolerance embarked on a transformative journey in 2008 by introducing a captivating music program. This visionary initiative aimed to forge a deeper connection with diverse audiences and effectively communicate its mission of promoting a society rooted in acceptance and understanding, all through the enchanting power of music, thus maintaining the tradition of bringing people together through art with a special focus on good music.

In addition to a rich film program and accompanying events, the Festival has so far hosted top international and domestic musicians of various genres – ranging from jazz to traditional Romani music, klezmer music, rock and electronics, and up to well-known local and foreign DJs such as the Brazilian DJ Joice Muniz and the Austrian duo Ogris Debris. Among numerous popular DJs, Filip Eterović has been the main protagonist of our dancing evenings and socializing for many years.

phillipe je ljubitelj šarenih čara-pa i jedan od osnivača CFSN-a. Dugi niz godina bio je suorganizator Illectricityja, festivala audio-vizualnih umjetnosti, FRÜHSTÜCKa te phillitchevanje klupskeh večeri. Sate ponekad provodi producirajući vlastitu glazbu, remiksirajući tuđu ili slazući sound design za neke druge mlade vizualne kreativce. Po glazbenom zadatku gostovao je u mnogim klubovima od Istanbula, Sofije, Skopja, Podgorice pa sve do Budimpešte, Beča, Berlina te Poljske i Latvije. Bio je gost najvećih glazbenih festivala u ovom dijelu Europe kao što su Love International, Elevate, Dimensions, Outlook, Modem, Exit festival, i drugi.

For this reason, DJ Phillippe (Filip Eterović) will grace us with his presence at this year's festival. His exceptional taste in music will not only set the tone for the opening ceremony but also serve as the perfect complement to the week-long lineup of top-notch films.

phillipe is a fan of colourful socks and one of the founders of CFSN (Confusion). For years he co-organized Illectricity, a cutting-edge audio-visual arts festival, as well as FRÜHSTÜCK and phillitchevanje club nights. When he's not behind the decks, he spends hours producing his own music, remixing others or putting together sound design for young visual creatives, but time just doesn't flow in his favour.

As a DJ, he has performed in many clubs from Istanbul, Sofia, Skopje, Podgorica to Budapest, Vienna, Berlin and distant Poland and Latvia. He was a guest of the biggest music festivals in this part of Europe such as Love International, Elevate, Dimensions, Outlook, Modem, Exit festival, to name but a few.
